

Greetings from UNC Student Affairs!

In this issue, we'd like to highlight some of the ways departments in Student Affairs support student learning and success by promoting a campus culture that welcomes all. With a safe environment devoted to wellness, inclusion, accessibility and resiliency, everyone has an opportunity to thrive.

If you believe that making this work possible is important, we need your support. With your help, we will continue to foster student learning. To find a way to give of your time, talent and/or treasure, please reach out to me at zack.hawkins@unc.edu or 919-962-9077. Thanks for all that you do to support Carolina.

Go Heels!
